DEAR BREVERSE : A Convention of Evan-gelical Christians will be held in the city of Cleveland, at 10 o'clock, on Wadnesday, stember 27, 1865, to organize a National stety for Evangelization—a Christian amission for the masses—to carry the religion of Jesus, in all all its saving effica-cy, especially in the great cities, and in the South, to those not reached by effective Christian influences.

Extensive correspondence and consultation have led to the assurance that the re-cessity of greater activity in the direction indicated is painfully felt. We have faller away from the simplicity and entire con-secration of the early Christians. At first secration of the early Chretians. At first every disciple was a missionary, and overy church a missionary society. It is simply proposed that earnest Christians, whose hearts burn with love and real, join hands to do, and promote, this comprehensive work of direct evangelisation, for which the primitive Christians lived, suffered and died. The plan proposed is simple, and it The plan proposed is simple, and it

> EVENING MEETINGS, Dr. Buddington, of Brooklyn, was introduced:

He congratulated his fellow countrymen on the dawn of one of the grandest eras in history. A great war has been followed by a great peace, and the problem now is: Has the Church of Christ a new sad great work to perform? Are we now supplied with all the agencies God requires to so the work God assigns to us in this land? Afterwhile demoralisms affect of war, the Church the demoralising effect of war, the Church rises by an impulse of seal and faith and presses forward to the work of moral reconstruction. The power of the Redeemer's salvation comes close upon the heels of the war, that this land may become the land of Christ.

He proceeded to state with emphasis, that He proceeded to state with emphasis, that the Convention meets here without any political aim or end, or sectarian purpose and bias. It would not lay a straw in the way of any denomination. We give the Roman all the freedom we ask for ourselves, and ciaim from him equal privilege.

The question arises: What do we propose to do? Is the church of Christ now working to evangelize the masses with such thoroughness as will warrant us in praying and begins that in our calcration they they have been sminently successful. Yet there are classes of people not now reached by Christian influences. Rev. Mr. Clark was the next speaker. BEHARKS OF DE. CLARK. He said the destiny of the country In the hands of the American Church. This continent had been chosen by God as the great battle-ground between the powers of light and darkness. The great struggle between liberty and oppression is ended, and new comes the great moral battle. Sin stalks abroad in all our large cities. In the South society is utterly disorganized, and both moral and physical destitution prevail to an alarming extent. The question is: How are they to be reached? Under God the American Church is powerful enough to save the nation. We are in the habit of depending too much upon organized effort. Personal effort of an earnest, ranious kind is needed.
